October 2002

Dear Business Leader:

The members of the Corporate Volunteer Council of Montgomery County are proud to present the Wish List Directory for 2002-2003 and hope that you will use it to make decisions about where to donate goods and services in benefit the nonprofit community in Montgomery County. The nonprofit organizations in our area provide an array of needed services that help make this a wonderful place to live and work, an "All-America Community." We encourage you to work in partnership with them, helping to provide the tools they need to operate efficiently and effectively and at the same time, taking advantage of what they have to offer.

The Corporate Volunteer Council promotes corporate volunteerism by linking the resources and knowledge of the business community to the needs of the nonprofit and public agencies serving Montgomery County. The CVC-MC encourages corporate citizenship and recognizes unique and successful corporate volunteer programs. If your business is not already a member, please consider joining. Your membership will benefit both the community and your business.

I hope that you find this Wish List Directory a valuable tool and that you will use it often.

Sincerely,

Judi A. Hadfield
President

October 2002

Dear Business Leader:

The Montgomery County Volunteer Center is proud to have been of assistance to the Corporate Volunteer Council (CVC-MC) in the production of this Wish List Directory. Members of the CVC-MC are to be congratulated for their leadership in promoting corporate volunteerism, providing for an exchange of knowledge in the use of corporate resources for community service activities, linking corporate volunteer programs with nonprofit agencies and recognizing outstanding corporate participation in volunteerism.

Montgomery County is home to several hundred public and private nonprofit organizations. The Volunteer Center works cooperatively with the CVC-MC to link individuals, businesses, and other groups with the organizations that need volunteers, financial assistance, or donated goods and services. We invite you to contact us for assistance as you develop your corporate volunteer program.

Please use this directory to make donations of professional services and new or used goods. Many public and private nonprofit agencies are in critical need of your assistance. Also, please take advantage of the wonderful services and opportunities the agencies can provide to you.

Sincerely,

Andrea Jolly
Director
